Let the Children Have a Merry Christmas

No festival or holiday of the year is more adapted to childhood than Christmas. The memory of the "Babe of Bethlehem" is celebrated, and it is the right of every child, rich or poor, that they be happy on His natal day. Don't confine your Christmas cheer to your immediate family, remember there are others whom circumstances prevent from having as lavish an entertainment. Make some child happy, it don't require a great amount of money, but select some less fortunate than yourself and see that one or more be made happy. Be "a good fellow," and help out in showing that great big overgrown and carefree Chicago has some regards for its children's happiness. Your gift need not be large, but give it with a will that will leave no doubt of your joy of giving. When the bells ring next Thursday morning, let it be music to your soul, and make a resolution that someone will be the nappier for the day by your efforts, and so help bring "Peace on earth and good will to all men."

We Are a Nation of Law Breakers

If you don't agree with this, make a note of how many of our laws national, state or municipal are violated in your own presence, if not by yourself. The speeding autoist nearly kills one a day; the holdup men get a dozen a night and with small chance of arrest. City ordinances, rules and regulations are stretched to the utmost by the best of us, and it seems everyone goes as far as they can and escape the law. Thousands of saloons are wide open and selling forbidden liquor yet who ever heard of any being punished? With this lawlessness comes the more radical who take what they can get by force or otherwise, and believe they are within their rights. Bolshevism, I. W W.ism has no right in America, and if we would all obey the laws there would be little of it. A well ordered citizen will help enforce the laws

IN REMEMBRANCE OF OUR DEAR MOTHER
Mrs. Flora Keifer
Died Two Years Ago

Gone in the best of her days;
Blighted in womanhood bloom.
Gone from the home that loved her,
To leave only sorrow and gloom.
One of the noblest souls whom God did send,
A wonderful mother and a dear friend.
Always so patient, tender and kind.
What a grand memory she has left behind.

Mr. Thompson promised to help and gave the delegates a letter to Mr. Mortenson, who looked with favor on the idea and promised to push the matter. Mr. Schuberth was the spokesman. The committee from the Auburn Park Business Men's Association presented a petition signed by 2,000 names of Auburn Park residents which shows the interest taken by the community in the project, but constant and steady work is necessary for success.

Don't forget to follow the crowds on Wednesday evening, January 21st, to the first big event of the year—the Bunco Card Party and Dance to be given by the St. Sabina's Social Club at Auburn Park Masonic Hall (the hall beautiful), 7832 Union Ave. (just 3 minutes walk from Auburn Park's "Gay White Way"). Read what the Irish Reporter says about dancing. Then don't be a "wallflower." Join the crowds of "merry makers" and enjoy life. "You haven't lived until you've danced," says the adventurer. Ambler's orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets fifty cents a person. Watch this paper for further particulars.

Preparing Parcels for Mailing

Postmaster Carlile has issued a valuable circular on the proper preparation of parcels for mailing that should be in the hands of every one. Over a million parcels a day are mailed in Chicago and many of them are badly packed, wrapped or misdirected and consequently go astray or are ruined. Ask for this little folder at the postoffice and keep it handy in the house.

Lucille Myrtle Graffy died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Graffy, 1235 71st Pl., and her funeral occurred Monday morning. Burial was at Mt. Olivet.

Charles S. McParland of 6215 Rockwell St., who was shot by a policeman Dec. 1st while it was alleged he was attempting to rob the Linden theatre safe, died at St. Bernard's hospital Sunday.

Burglars forced an entrance into the large furniture store of Kamen & Co., 6538-40 Halsted St., last Thursday night and after ransacking the store left after opening the safe. It is thought they were frightened and were compelled to leave before accomplishing their theft.

The messenger of the Halsted St. Bank who was indicted and held for complicity in being "held up" some weeks ago, was discharged in the criminal court last week, no case having been made against him.

Mrs. Jansky, mother of Carrier J. Jansky of the Elsdon station, went shopping on Dec. 12th. When her son returned from work she had not arrived home. He commenced a search and found she had fallen and died and had been removed to the morgue. Funeral was held on Monday.

The detail of regular army soldiers at 6001 Halsted St. are mighty nice men, and just full of stories and army reminiscences that are very interesting. Sergeant Gallagher and Private Raymond are both "old timers" in the service and enjoy meeting people. Give them the glad hand the next time you pass.

A memorial meeting will be held this evening at Southland hall, 59th and Halsted Sts., in honor of the late William F. Tormoehlen of 6733 Morgan St. by Wahpansch Council of the Royal League. Mr. Tormoehlen was scribe of this council for 23 years, and was a resident of Englewood for over thirty years. He was a letter carrier of the Stock Yards station for 34 years. He was 56 years of age and a highly respected citizen. The services will be largely attended beyond doubt.

LINDEN THEATRE

The management of the Linden Theatre extends to their many patrons its best wishes for "A Merry Christmas" and "A Happy and Prosperous New Year."

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 19th and 20th. William Farnum in "Wings of the Morning." This is a picture that brings out the star at his best. Be sure to see him in this play. In "Wings of the Morning," Mr. Farnum, first seen as a British officer, appears later as a sailor on board a Pacific liner, figuring as the hero of what is declared to be the most realistic shipwreck ever seen in motion pictures. Also Friday Pathe Review, Lloyd comedy and Current Events. Also Saturday Mutt and Jeff, Kinogram and "The Great Radium Mystery." No. 8.

Sunday and Monday, Dec. 21st and 22nd. Mary Miles Minter in "Anne of Green Gables." You'll need them! And you'll need to hold your sides, too, to keep from splitting over the antics of "orphint" Anne. Really, she ought to have been a boy! But then, she has a "serious side," also, and well did the villagers know it. Especially the Pie family!. Also Good Comedy.

Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 22nd and 23rd, Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle in "The Hayseed." "Fatty" bought Mollie a diamond almost as big as himself. Then some money was stolen, and poor "Fatty" was blamed. He had to confess the diamond was false. Did Mollie still love him? It's a stirring drama with the King of matinee idols starring. "Fatty" flits like a shadow through scene upon scene of gorgeous fun.

Coming—Four Days—Dec. 28th, 29th, 30th and 31st

Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 23rd and 24th. D. W. Griffith's newest and latest masterpiece, "Scarlet Days," a tale of the olden West. In no picture on the screen that we can remember has California of the golden, rough days of '49 been set forth with such fascination and glamour or so faithfully as in David Wark Griffith's new Paramount-Artcraft production, "Sarlet Days." The old-time California has frequently been represented as a place where the chief industry was murder and whose population was about equally divided between cow punchers in hair pants and dance hall young ladies dressed like Ziegfeld Follies. Mr. Griffith shows the old frontier as it realy was—in its roaring brutality and its strange, tender chivalry. Richard Barthelmess and a fine cast help to make this picture more than worth while. The cast in this picture are many of the members of Mr. Griffith's party who last week were lost for four days off the western coast, but finally reported safe after a thrilling experience.

Thursday, Dec. 25th, Christmas Day, and Friday, Dec. 26th. Special program. Wm. S. Hart in "John Petticoats." Wm. S. Hart and the Linden management wish all their friends and patrons "The Season's Greetings."

A Rhymed Review, by Russell Holman

Can you imagine big Bill Hart
The owner of a modiste shop?
Stop! Let me tell you 'bout the part,
Before you whistle for a cop.

Blithe lumberjack of strength and skill,
A will and Fate combine to whirl
Him south to New Orleans, where Bill
Unmasks a knave and wins a girl.

"John Petticoats"—a true-blue man,
Though scared of lingerie and frills.
A treat for every movie fan:
A laugh, a sigh, and heaucoup thrills.

Coming, four days, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 28th, 29th, 30th and 31st, Clara Kimball Young in "Eyes of Youth."

NATIONAL THEATRE

The latest play founded on the popular comics of "Bringing Up Father," the world-renowned cartoons created by George McManus, will be the next offering at the National Theatre for week commencing matinee Dec. 21st. It bears the infectious title of "Bringing Up Father In Society." As might be inferred the theme of the attraction revolves around the efforts of "Jiggs" Mahoney, "Mother," "Dinny," and the rest of the Mahoney clan to break into the charmed circle. In justice to "Jiggs," who is better known as "Father," it may be chronicled right here and now that he is forced to enter "society" against his will. How he fares, how he meets and opposes the best laid plans of his wife, "Mother," how he arouses laughter, mirth and paves the way to gaiety, joy, happiness, and gladness unconfined is entertainingly described in three rollicking and side-splitting acts, each wedded to catchy and original music. The cast is a large and competent one in which a chorus of pretty and vivacious young women predominate. Matinees on Sunday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Father"! See Him at the National Next Week

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe has booked a series of special Christmas attractions for the coming week, new pictures of holiday intent and a score of vaudeville acts that are bright, clean and wholesome and of especial bearing on the gay and festive season. You can enjoy an evening at the Marlowe that will give you the proper holiday spirit and your wife and family will enjoy it with you. Come on in—the water's fine.

The wonderful success of the Marlowe Hippodrome this season is the marvel in the picture and vaudeville world. The excellence of the programs and their variety and merit attracts large audiences every time the doors are opened. "Doc" White has made good by giving the people their money's worth and providing them with entertainment that they like and enjoy. Most of humanity grows tired of one class of amusement as well as of one diet and to provide for this the Marlowe books a line of attractions varied in character but universally good in merit. They offer a big triple program daily, good pictures, the best features of filmdom, and in addition the cleverest and best in vaudeville that is clean and attractive.

Mondays, as a special, the Marlowe offers a hat contest, the audience voting for the most attractive lady donning the latest confection in millinery and the lady wears the hat home. Tuesdays, besides the vaudeville acts, they offer the professional song revue and the thrilling pictures. Wednesday comes the Jim Corbett pictures in serial, the most thrilling ever produced, depicting the champion as "The Midnight Man," and in addition the best musical comedy or acts of vaudeville that are fully up to the Marlowe standard. Thursday is another big vaudeville night with good pictures, and Friday comes the all star professional vaudeville revue of seven or more acts, as well as the pictures. Saturday and Sunday are gala days at the Marlowe; in addition to great feature first run pictures they offer at least six big vaudeville acts.

The Marlowe always leads and assures every visitor a good show, come when they may. Be one of the crowd and patronize the real show.

The management of the E. A. R. Theatre wishes to extend "The Season's Best Wishes" to its many friends and patrons and invites them to the Christmas Day program especially.

Your pretty little neighborhood photo playhouse, the E. A. R. has been making big and history making strides in the giving their patrons the best photoplays that money can purchase. To prove this statement read the following program:

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 19th and 20th. Elsie Ferguson in "Counterfeit," her latest Paramount success. The charm of the South, the lure of the Secret Service, the wealth and fashion of Newport, the crimes of a band of crooks preying on the "idle rich," the mystery, love, adventure that make a picture live—they are all in "Counterfeit." Sunday, Dec. 21st. Don't fail to see this picture! Jesse L. Lasky presents Bryant Washburn in "It Pays to Advertise." The comedy of a thousand laughs. The star with millions of admirers. The famous stage success as now shown in pictures is better entertainment than it ever was from the speaking stage. The complications that arise are pictured to better advantage than they were shown on the country's stages. Also Century Comedy and International News.

Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 22nd and 23rd. Irene Castle in "The Invisible Bond." The story of a wife who was true to a husband who was false. Founded on Sophie Kerr Underwood's famous romance, "The See-Saw," a tale of love and intrigue in New York's "upper ten." Played by a brilliant cast, headed by America's "most talked of" woman. The gaiety and fashion of metropolitan life, pictured in scenes of sumptuous beauty. Underneath, a big, vital, human drama, pulsing with the passions that rule the race.

Wednesday, Dec. 24th. The beautiful and talented star, Anita Stewart, in her new play of stage life, "Mind the Paint Girl." The story is almost entirely built around stage life and Miss Stewart has spent a large part of her life in a theatrical atmosphere. Consequently she knows it thoroughly. The part she takes in this picture is practically acting her own life.

Thursday, Christmas Day, Dec. 25th, and Friday, Dec. 26th. This being the one big day of the year, we are offering an exceptionally fine program and invite all our friends and patrons to spend a most enjoyable afternoon or evening with us. The picture is one of the greatest love stories ever told, "Wings of the Morning," with William Farnum, playing in the biggest role and strongest story of his career. The story, "Wings of the Morning," is a well-known novel by Louis Tracy. As unfolded on the screen, the drama is filled with stirring situations and thrilling incidents, coupled with one of the most dramatic portrayals in which the eminent star has been seen. In this thrilling story of romance and sea adventure the hero, who is marooned on an unsettled island of the China Seas with a beautiful girl, is surrounded by a horde of the fierce head-hunting Dyaks, who are determined to add the brave man's head to their trophies and to capture the girl for their chief. The many perils and adventures that Mr. Farnum, as the hero, has to undergo, coupled with a delightful love story, bid fair to give the admirers of this screen star a great evening's entertainment.

The winter season is on with all the big extra attractions and Manager Mitchell is after them so keenly that nothing can escape, and the result is the best line of vaudeville acts that are put over any board. The chestnut may not grow on this active stage; they must be good acts, new acts and clean acts to catch the eye of the wise old Harry who presides over this splendid house. As special attractions for ladies and children the daily matinee is boomed as the big day show of the town and the large and constantly increasing attendance shows that the real people appreciate it. There is not a lonely minute at the Empress, and not an hour but you feel you have spent well if you spend it at the Empress. If you want to keep abreast of the times at all times you will become an Empress patron and see their show often, as none of the headliners from any circuit escapes booking at this big, roomy, comfortable house. ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Sim Williams' All New 1920 Edition of "The Girls from Joyland" will Come to the Englewood Theatre Sunday, Dec. 21, Christmas Week

The title indicates two of the chief qualities of the production, girls and joyfulness. The girls are there full force and they form an unusually pretty array of choristers, who parade through an amazing wealth of attractive dance numbers, sing tuneful songs and wear stunning and bewildering beautiful costumes. The joyfulness is furnished through the medium of strong comedy offered by the best of all burlesque comedians, funny Billy Gilbert, who makes you laugh until you become almost hysterical. He is happily supported by the following talent: George Brennan, who is a comedian of great cleverness; Billie Davis, a prima donna who is beautiful and whose voice is a real musical treat; Doris Clare, one of the prettiest and most dashing soubrettes who ever danced across a stage; Ida Nicolai, who is a capable and popular burlesque performer, and Roy Burke, Jean Schuler and Billy LeRoy assist to make the "Girls from Joyland" the one burlesque success of the season. Sim Williams has always prided himself upon injecting novelty into every show produced by him and into this production he has introduced several innovations which are unlike anything presented by any of his burlesque competitors. There is a wonderful Forty-Second and Broadway by night scene. Homeland, Mexico and numerous other surprises which catch the audience unawares. All together "The Girls from Joyland" is the one laughing burlesque hit of the season with the 100 per cent perfect beauty chorus of youthful girls.

In October, 1918, a home was purchased at 6323 Yale Ave., was remodeled and made ready for occupancy, by February, 1919, with thirty children. At the present time, forty children are under the supervision of the P. W. N A.

In February, 1920, the new addition will be ready for the accommodation of eighty or more children.

The success achieved by the women of this organization should be the pride of every protestant in Chicago. The Protestant Home for Children is the philanthropic work of this organization. The philanthropic department is on a firm foundation, so that more time can be devoted to the other departments Mrs. Helen M. Grant Knisely, chairman of the civic department, under stands this work so thoroughly that we hope to accomplish a good deal in this department this year.

A Christmas reception will be held at the Home, 6323 Yale Ave., on the 23rd of December.

He has lived in Englewood since 1868 and was in the postal service over 50 years and one of the most distinguished men in the Englewood station. He was a clean cut gentleman of the old school, a charitable and kindly disposition and happy faculty of making and retaining friends. We join with many in extending sympathy to Mrs. Fields and the family.

Boy Scouts

The Boy Scouts of Chicago will form the line of march at the reception given by the City of Chicago to General Pershing next Saturday, Dec. 20th. The reception will be at the Art Institute at 2 p. m. All scouts must be on hand at 2 p. m. in uniform and each troop under an appointed leader, either scoutmaster, assistant or older scout.

Eight thousand Chicago scouts are out on a war on rats and mice. This is a community good turn in that it helps to do away with any chance of a bubonic plague in the city. Each scout has his orders as to how to kill these rodents and it bids fair to be a war to the finish.

Troop 633 of Community House, 1030 St., held a banquet on Friday night last. About thirty-five sat down around the festive board, including parents and friends of the scouts. District Commissioner F. M. Fay held was master of ceremonies. Mr. W. A. MacCormack bird imitation and warbler, and Fred High of the Lyceum Bureau, entertained. Talks were given by Mr. C. K. Hines, field scout executive of the district, and Mr. R. N. Bunn, scoutmaster of the troop, also Mrs. Hicks of Community House. Short talks were given by parents of the boys as to the value of the scout program.

Some scouts of the Southwest District will spend part of the Christmas vacation in a winter camp at Camp Shabbona. Mr. Hines will be in charge of the second period, which is for first class scouts, Dec. 26-30.

All of the women will be dressed as children and a "Jackie" band will furnish the music. On the afternoon of Monday, the twenty-second, the girls of the afternoon classes will hold their party, at which a Christmas tree will be the chief attraction.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY
6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

MAILING OF CHRISTMAS PARCELS

1. Wrap them in good, double-thick, tough, heavy paper. Tie securely, i.e., tightly, and use plenty of knots (before wrapping, slip into the bundle a card with names and addresses of both sender and addressee upon it. The good reason for this is that often from handling in transit the name and address of sender and addressee are torn completely off the wrapping paper with consequent long delay and frequently entire loss).

2. After wrapping, write with ink (pencils marks are easily rubbed off) the name of the friend you are sending the parcel to, with address in the lower right-hand corner; then in the upper left-hand corner, write your own name and address as sender, just as you do upon an envelope when sending a letter. I emphasize this because, strange to say, lots of folk reverse the names of sender and receiver; that is, they place their name (the sender's) in the place where they should put the receiver's—they of course wouldn't do this if they were addressing an envelope. Now what happens when this is done? Why, the busy postal clerks just read the sender's name for the receiver's and promptly send it back to Auburn Park postoffice for delivery to—the sender. We at once correct the places (by rewriting) and then send the parcel once more upon its joyful mission; but what has happened? Delay, of course, that is the penalty.

3. Wrap fragile articles in plenty (2 inches of it) of excelsior or cotton or some other elastic stuff; then put in a wooden or strong paper fiber box; wrap this up in the good strong paper and on the outside mark "Fragile" plainly.

4. Put correct postage on the parcel.

5. Insure it (3c to 5c will insure the average parcel).

6. Last and best, MAIL NOW! Now, before the rush with its congestion comes; before the "crowding" and we all know what that means, whether applied to folk or to parcels.

Attention of Our Ministers

Pastors of all churches or anyone uthorized, is invited to send us church notices of services, etc. We ask that they be brief and to the point. We prefer that they be renewed weekly giving subject of sermons, etc., but insist that they be not allowed to grow stale, and unless ordered otherwise, we shall remove a notice that has been unchanged for more than a month. We publish all such notices free, and ask that they be sent in no later than Wednesday noon.

Forgot It—That's All, But—

You just forgot it, didn't you? of course that's all right, but when we try to forget our pay day the "staff" seriously objects and we have to dig deep down into our jeans to get the money to pay them, and where in the world will we get it if all of our kind patrons "forget" to pay us. The "forgetting" faculties of people generally is why we cannot afford to run classified ads without advance payment. Should you be one of the "forgetters" kindly brush up and remit that little amount as we need it in paying our income tax and things.

New Army Recruiting Station

One of the surest signs of the growth of outlying business districts is the establishment therein of the Army Recruiting Sub-station.

Such a station is now established at 6001 Halsted St., where Corporal Roy J. Gallagher from the Recruiting District of Chicago, will have charge, assisted by First-class Private Raymond.

Corporal Gallagher is a booster for the New Army, and the possibilities in Vocational Training features of the present day service.

He has spent many years in the service, having served with the Michigan Volunteers in the Spanish American War, and is one of those men who are able to furnish interesting side lights on the difference between the opportunities of the old army and the new.

Whether you have any idea of joining the army or not it will be worth your while to stop for a chat with this soldier, who having had a long army experience rounded out by duty at Recruiting Headquarters, is well informed on matters of War Risk Insurance, allotments and other matters about which there are many questions in the minds of American men and relatives.

TEDDY A "GAME COMPANION"

"Bill" Sewall, Colonel's Guide in Maine Woods, Pays "Great Heart" Fine Compliment.

That Theodore Roosevelt was a game companion and a man who could quickly adapt himself to new and untried conditions is the testimony of "Bill" Sewall, who was the colonel's guide and companion on many jaunts through the Maine woods.

"I remember particularly on one of these trips that Theodore wanted to chop," says Mr. Sewall, "but I voted against the plan. He was fond of chopping and seemed disappointed. I saw his disappointment and explained my reason for refusing.

"'If you use that ax,' I told him, 'the first thing you know you will be cutting yourself. Then I will not only have to pull this dugout—but the dugout with you in it.'

"On that trip I had a pirogue, a sort of dugout, which I was dragging along on the trip, and it was pretty heavy. Theodore readily perceived the common sense of my objection and complied with a cheerful grin.

"How he enjoyed that trip! A wholesome, clean-thinking youth he was, with eager eye and mind, and he saw and absorbed every detail."

Which translated into plain newspaper talk means "Cut 'em down," and when next you favor us with a news item or article, don't write all around the subject, but tell it in as few words as possible. Prince of Peace

Alma B. Wilson

Two little hands stretch out to bless
To let people see life's loveliness.
Two little lips have come to speak
To cheer the sad heart and the meek.
Two little feet step out alone
To make a path to the Father's throne.
That is why a light divine
That night in desert plains did shine.
That is why the shepherds heard
The angel's song, believed the word.
That is why, till time shall cease,
We shall sing to the little "Prince of Peace."

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

Christmas Morning

"What means this glory 'round our feet?"
The Magi mused. "More bright than morn."
And voices chanted clear and sweet,
"Today the Prince of Peace is born."
"What means that star," the Shepherds said,
"That brightens through the rocky glen?"
And angels answering overhead
Sang, "Peace on earth, good will to men."

The Indian scalps his enemy, but the white man skins his friend.

Follow a corkscrew and you will become crooked.

It is quite a joke just now to present a fellow with an elaborate beer stein, the once popular "den" ornament.

To every one of you, patient and lenient readers, I wish a very Merry Christmas.

Christmas seems to be about the only unalloyed happiness the corporations and the walking delegate can't take from us.

Even the festive and juicy mince pie has to go without the usual brandy condiment this year unless the cook knows where dad keeps his private stock.

No, I didn't shave off my mustache to look younger, but the Missus at my house insisted that she was tired of being reminded of the "57 varieties" by the different hues of that adornment. Gosh dern our handsome picters anyway, it is simply impossible to improve them

"Do you always keep your temper when you telephone?" "Sure! Other day a man called me and said, 'You don't know who this is talking, do you?'" "Didn't that heat you up?" "Yep. But I simply said, 'No, and I don't care,' and hung up the receiver."

I was a bit frightened by the report that the world was to come to an end Wednesday, so I went down to Blue Island for the day. I have since learned that the wise guy who made the prediction made an error of a few million years, so will continue to do business as heretofore. Now is the time to subscribe.

Hully chee! It doesn't seem so very long ago that I took glory in an expectant red sled and red topped boots with copper toes as regular Christmas presents, now I buy them for grandchildren and get at least a reflection of the old, old pleasure. Me to old, readers?

A big darky was being registered. "Ah can't go to wah," he answered in re exemption, "foh they ain't nobody to look afteh ma wife." A dapper little undersized colored brother stepped briskly up and inquired, "What kind of a lookin' lady is yoh wife?"

An Irishman was telling his friend of a narrow escape in the war. The Irishman said: "The bullet went into me chest, and came out me back." "But," said the friend, "it would go through your heart and kill you." "Me heart was in me mouth at the time," said the Irishman.

A young lady we know has fastened a bunch of mistletoe over the telephone booth and since then every girl in the neighborhood insists upon using the phone. Gosh, she almost took advantage of my youth, beauty and innocence and caught me under it, but it cost a nickel, so I balked

The young wife gazed upon the sleeping form of her young husband with the tender eye of youth. As a matter of fact, hubby had got a cold and he found it conducive to sleeplessness at night. It seemed a pity to disturb his repose; but her affection was equal to the task and, shaking him gently by the shoulder, she said: "Wake up, Georgie; the doctor's just sent your sleeping draft!"

A well-known Englewood minister once told me of his bright young son, whom he found holding the door shut against his little sister, who was standing outside in a heavy rain. The father commanded, "Johnny, let your sister in; she'll get wet," and the young hopeful answered. "Can't do it, dad, we're playing Noah and the ark and she's the sinners and has to stand out in the wet."

He was a polite canvasser that faced Mrs. Smart. "Good morning madam. Here is a polish for cleaning silver. Best on the market." "Don't want any!" snapped Mrs. Smart. "Sorry to have troubled you, madam, but I thought the lady next door was mistaken." "What did she say?" "She said I need not waste my time calling here, as you had no silver." "The impudent thing! Give me half a dozen boxes!"

A woman had entered a newspaper office for the purpose of inserting an advertisement in the "Wants" column. "I wish," said she to the clerk, "to put in this advertisement for a cook. It will go in three lines, won't it?" "No, madam," said the clerk, after counting. "We shall have to charge you for four lines, but you can add four words if you wish." Whereupon the lady had an idea. "Just add," she said, "policeman stationed opposite corner."

Parent Teachers' Association

In spite of the coal shortage and a rather cold hall, a most interesting meeting of the Parent Teachers' Association was held on Thursday December 11th. The meeting opened with fine selections given by our band. Miss Naomi Levinson gave a clever recitation and a quartette made up by Miss Laura Clark, Miss Marion Arcuri, Miss Esther Bernard and Miss Marguerite Pierce added some charming songs to the program. An interesting paper on "How School Girls Should Dress" by Miss Stockbridge was the important topic of the afternoon. Mr. Armstrong gave a short talk on what the Parent-Teachers' Association had done for the school. Some fine selections by the orchestra completed the meeting.

"The Holy Child" Cantata at Normal Pk. Baptist Church

The Normal Park Baptist Choir, under the direction of William Griswold Smith, can always be depended on to present something interesting and musically excellent. Next Sunday evening at 7:30 this fine body of singers will sing the cantata "The Holy Child," by Horatio Parker. Professor Parker has long held the distinction of dean of American composers. "The Holy Child" is a melodious and straightforward depiction of the Nativity, of eight numbers, four of which are choruses of beauty and power. The work opens with a ringing "Annunciation" of the Angel Gabriel, sung by Mr. Smith. A chorus of wonderful beauty, "The Plains of Bethlehem," follows and is succeeded by a grateful soprano solo "The Adoration of the Shepherds" sung by Mrs. Hunker. After a magnificent chorus "Christ, the King of Kings," Mrs Hunker and Mr. Smith sing the "Virgin's Lullaby," a tender duet of original character. The sterling body of men, for which this choir is noted, then delivers "The March of the Magi," followed by George Gordon's "Prophetic Song," a virile number well suited to his clarion baritone and the work is concluded with a chorus of great beauty and wonderful climax. Miss Charlotte Allen gives her able assistance at the organ.
